

Women of the Bible - Hagar

Orlando Bible Students Special Study

Sunday February 23, 2014

General References: F170; R1389; R2777-78; R3952; R4309; R4319; R4370-71; R5503; Gen. 12:16; 16:1-16; 17:20; 21:8-21; 25:12-18; 30:3,4,9,10; Deut. 5:1-5; Rom. 9:6,7; Gal. 4:22-31;

- 1) Who was Hagar? What was her background and her relationship to Sarah? Gen. 16:1; Gen. 12:16;

- 2) How does Hagar become involved with Abram? Who initiated this? Gen. 12:2-4; Gen. 30:3,4,9,10

- 3) When Hagar becomes pregnant, what happens? What does that tell us about her character? Gen 12:4-6; R3952;

- 4) When Hagar flees from Sarah's presence, how does God intervene? Why? Gen. 16:6-14; R3952;

- 5) When Abraham makes a great feast for Isaac, what does Ishmael do? How happens as a result? How does God intervene? Gen. 21:8-21; Gal. 4:29,30; R2777-78; R3952; R5503;

- 6) In the interactions between Abram, Sarah and Hagar, what does Hagar represent? Why? Gal. 4:22-31; F170; R1389; R3952; R4309; R4319; R4370-71;

- 7) What does Hagar's son Ishmael represent? Why? What promises does God make concerning Ishmael and how does God watch over him? Gal. 4:22-31; Gen. 17:20; Gen. 25:12-18; Rom. 9:6,7; R2777-78; R3952; R4309; R4319; R5503;