

Rock-Skipping Through Revelation Promises to Overcomers

Orlando Bible Students Special Study — Sunday, June 27, 2021

The revealing of the Promises and blessings of Revelation are given now to those who have made the covenant by sacrifice with the heavenly Father. Hebrews 11:6, “. . . he that cometh to God must believe that He is, and that He is a rewarder of them that diligently seek Him.” However, we know that His plan is for all His Creation and will extend to the entire human family to know in due time “good tidings of great joy.” In this Revelation “stone skipping breakout” we will look at the promises toward the overcomers foretold. There are many promises/blessings as part of the vision of Revelation that are corroborated throughout all of God’s Word.

1) Identify to whom the promise/blessing is given and when does it occur?

A: Revelation 1:1,3; R2827; see Revelation Simplified - page 11

B: Revelation 10:9-11; Jer. 15:16; Jer. 20:9; see Revelation Simplified - page 105

2) Who is the promise of Revelation 11:15 made to, and are there any others that will benefit from this promise? Also please discuss when this occurs? 1 Thess. 4:16; Ps. 2:8; Dan. 7:14,18; Ezek. 21:27; see Expanded Biblical Comments on Revelation 11:15; Vol. 2, pages 148-149

3) When and to whom is the promise in Revelation 2:10 and Revelation 19:6-9 intended? And what are the conditions of this promise/blessing? 1 Thess. 4:7; R2159; R5992

4) Is the promise in Revelation 7:9-10 and verse 13-15 for spiritual or earthly individuals or a group? Explain and include timing of this promise? Luke 21:34; 1 Cor. 3:15; see Expanded Biblical Comments for these verses; Revelation Simplified - pages 74-75

5) Consider these three Revelation scriptures in this order (1) Revelation 20:13; (2) Revelation 3:5; (3) Revelation 20:12/. Who are these promises meant for, what is the time frame and discuss how they work together to complete their purpose? 1 Tim. 2:4-6; Rev. 22:1-3,17; Luke 2:10; R501:5; 330; Revelation Simplified - pages 211-213
