Precious Promises—Witnessing

Orlando Bible Students Special Study - Sunday, October 22, 2023

"In the morning sow thy seed, and in the evening withhold not thine hand: for thou knowest not whether shall prosper, either this or that, or whether they both shall be alike good. Truly the light is sweet, and a pleasant thing it is for the eyes to behold the sun . . .—Ecclesiasts 11:6-7, KJV

References: R 5537; R1714,15; D-30: F-21; Manna—October 28, July 21; Isa. 61:1-2; Luke 4:17-18; Psa. 25:9. Psa. 133:2: I Cor. 9:16: John 9:4: 2 Tim. 2:12: Gal. 3:8: Matt. 28:19: John 4:36: John 14:15

ŕ	What was our Lord's commission—and is it ours also as body members? Does I Cor. 9:16 apply here?
2)	What exactly do we have to do if we are to follow this divine commission as directed—and why?
3)	What is the "effect" of witnessing on us and our faith—if we follow this directive in Isaiah 61:1-2? How does our faith affect our disposition, our attitude and our zeal of service and sacrifice? Is "the light" truly "sweet" to us?
4)	What exactly is preaching and is preaching the "good news" of the Gospel light—the same as "sowing thy seed and withholding not thy hand"?

5) Did Jesus get involved in social or political reform? Why, or why not? How would that have competed with his commission in Isaiah 61:1-2 regarding witnessing the Truth?